6. Participants

The event is by invitation only. The invitation is reserved specifically to companies that have taken part in the last two years in at least one edition of I Saloni Milano. In the exhibition may participate: 1) Industrial manufacturers and artisans that manufacture finished products exclusively related to the home and contract furnishing sector, including manufacturers of furniture, upholstered furniture, decorating accessories, home textiles, bathroom furnishings and accessories, light fixtures, kitchen furniture, office furniture 2) Designers and distributors (only those firms which carry out at least two of the following activities concerning the products exhibited: design, manufacture, distribution) related to the following sectors: decorating accessories, bathroom furnishings and accessories, light fixtures, office furnishings and accessories. The Organizer reserves the right to invite at its discretion manufacturers of furnishing elements and fixtures related to the home and contract furnishing sector. Participating companies agree to not exhibit products subject to copyright or intellectual property right disputes in which court proceedings have found them to be in breach of such rights.

7. Acceptance of the Regulations

Upon signing this participation form, the Company agrees to participate in I Saloni WorldWide Moscow in the space assigned by the Organizer and agrees to accept these Regulations. Exhibitors understand that this is a binding contract, regardless of whether or not their registration is ultimately approved. Exhibitors also agree to accept the Technical Regulations and the Exhibitors' Manual that, at the same time as the notice of space assignment, will be available on-line in the Exhibitor Private Area of the website, accessible with username and password printed in the notice of space assignment. Exhibitors must sign and agree to all the supplementary instructions taken in the interest of the event.

8. Application for participation

Participation form must be received by the Organizer by 9 May 2016. Participation form and its annexes must be completed in full and signed legibly by the legal representative of the Company. For companies that are applying for the first time and did not participate in the 2015 edition of the exhibition, all participation forms must be completed by the potential applicant and received by the Organizer no later than 10 days after the date that the Organizer has sent the participation forms to the potential applicant. The participation forms must include the following documents: a) certificate of registration at the relevant Companies Register or Chamber of Commerce abstract b) national insurance certificate with reference to pensions and other contributions or similar document with an up to date number of employees, both issued no more than 3 months from the date of the participation form c) promotional material illustrating the products to be presented at the Exhibition. The Organizer reserves the right to accept participation forms even after the above mentioned deadline. Concurrent with submitting the participation form complete with annexes C and D, the Company must remit to the Organizer the following amount as a security deposit: € 180.00 per sq.m. Receipt will be sent for any payments made. Applications can not include any contingencies or conditions of any kind.

9. Participation fees

The fee for participating in the exhibition is:
Stand with 1 open side € 399.00 per sq.m.
Stand with 2 open sides € 410.00 per sq.m.
Stand with 3 open sides € 420.00 per sq.m.
Stand with 4 open sides € 431.00 per sq.m.
For every trademark registered, filed or used under license: € 180.00 (see Form C) The Organizer reserves the right to enter into Agreements with trade Federations and Associations.

10. Supplies included in the participation fee

The participation fee includes the following services:

- Stand rental fee
 - Standard booth display which includes:
 - textile perimeter walls, light fixtures, raised floor
 - Signage with indication of the company name and eventual registered trademarks indicated in the application submitted
 - Signage and carpeting in the common areas
 - 1,5 kW installed electrical power for each 25 sq.m. unit
 - Exhibitor passes (see Article 5)
 - Inclusion in the Catalogue and one copy of it
 - Communication and promotion of the event
- Exhibitors may order on payment from the stand fitter items not included in the standard furniture and fixtures with appropriate notice. Requests for changes or additions made during set up must be authorized by the Organizer and arranged with the official stand fitting company. Relevant payment must be remitted directly to the stand fitter.

11. Services provided by the exhibitor

At own care and expense, exhibitors are responsible for the following:

- shipping, transporting and delivering the products to exhibit (the on-line Exhibitors' Manual provides more information on how to ship products to Moscow);
- travel and hotel accommodations for their personnel;
- insurances (see Article 23);
- any other service not expressly set forth in Article 10.

12. Terms and conditions of payment

Space rental fees must be paid by bank transfer within 15 days of the date of invoice, net of the deposit previously paid and, in any event, by no later than 30 September 2016. Failure to comply with payment terms will entitle the Organizer to reject applications for other exhibitions organized by the Organizer.

13. Admission / Space assignment

The Organizer will notify the Company as soon as it accepts the registration form by sending notice of space assignment. Space assignment will be decided in the exclusive interest of the event The Organizer will arrange the exhibition areas based on the following uniform groups according to style: classic, contemporary, design, luxury. Exhibitors are required to make note of the stylistic and formal characteristics of the products to exhibit in Form D (enclosed) which represents an integral part of the General Regulations, and to send promotional material illustrating the products to be presented at the Exhibition. If the exhibitor's products do not comply with the stylistic characteristics of the requested exhibition context, the Organizer reserves the right to assign an alternate similar area in the exhibition space that it deems appropriate. Exhibitors can ask their trademarks to be listed in the catalogue, enclosing for each trademark copy of the registration, the acknowledgement of liability or copy of the contract of licence. The Company admitted to the exhibition for more than one company trademark can have a space assigned without the need for a continuous perimeter or contiguity in the areas if such company trademarks fall into different stylistic and formal areas. The Organizer may change, decrease or modify at any time, even after sending notice of space assignment, the location and dimensions of the spaces if circumstances require, at its discretion. Exhibitors cannot claim settlement or indemnity for any reason and any cause. Previous use of a certain area or booth type or space, in a given edition of the event, shall not represent preferential claim to assignment of the same area or booth type or space for subsequent editions. Exhibitors are strictly prohibited from subleasing or assigning all or part of the exhibition space assigned to third parties. Notice related to the exhibition space assignment will be sent approximately as from 24 June 2016.

14. Rejection of the application

The Organizer will notify the Company if the participation form is rejected for inadmissibility, disallowance or any other reason, by sending notice to this effect to the Company and returning the documentation provided during registration, in addition to the security deposit remitted pursuant to Article 8 above.

The application will be rejected or admission revoked, if:

- the Company, during previous editions of the Exhibition or other events organized by the Organizer, incurred in General Regulations violations, promptly communicated by the Organizer and not yet remedied by the Company itself, or was banned from the Exhibition and/or the stand assigned to it was closed;
- there is danger of insolvency at the Company's business;
- the Company has not remitted to the Organizer all the sums still due for attendance at previous edition of the Exhibition, and/or for other exhibitions organized by the Organizer and other linked companies.

The Organizer reserves the right to reject the application if the Company has not remitted all the sums still due for attendance at exhibitions or activities organized by other linked companies.

15. Withdrawal from participation

After the Organizer sends notice of space assignment, exhibitors may no longer withdraw from the event. Failure to participate in the event shall not give the exhibitor right to refund of any payments made and the exhibitor is not exempted from paying the amounts payable and indemnity for resulting damages. In any case, all amounts already paid will be retained by the Organizer even if cancellation is received by the Organizer before notice of the stand assignment.

16. Stand design

Exhibitors undertake to display products of their own manufacture, belonging to the product category directory attached under Form D of the General Regulations, for the entire duration of the Exhibition. The products displayed must be positioned to avoid offending or being construed as in conflict with the provisions of Leg. Decree 81/2008 (Unified Safety Law) The Organizer will provide for the standard installation of the exhibition spaces according to the specifications contained in the Technical Regulations, available on-line at the same time as the notice of space assignment, which is considered an integral part of these General Regulations. Special installations are allowed, provided they do not conflict with the overall image of the show and the Technical Regulations. Exhibitors must submit any special installations in advance to the Organizer for its approval. The stand design plan, even if the special installation design is a simple exhibition layout, must be uploaded in the Exhibitor Private Area of the website by and no later than 11 July 2016 - with the designated form - along with all required documents. In case of exhibition space assignment sent after 24 June 2016, the stand design plan must be uploaded within 10 days of the date of assignment, and in any event no later than 18 July 2016; after that date Crocus Expo will check stand design plans on payment. Failure to send the mandatory documentation may lead Crocus Expo to block the exhibitor from bringing the booth personalization materials into the area. The Organizer is responsible for approving the booth design in its formal aesthetic aspects, while Build Expo has been assigned by Crocus Expo to assess it and issue the approval of its technical and safety characteristics. Likewise, as the Exhibitor accepts these Regulations, he also undertakes to accept the provisions of Italian Leg. Decree 81/2008 (Unified Safety Law) as amended, and agrees to keep the fireproof certification relating to the installation material available for inspection by local authorities. Exhibitors are required to strictly observe the prevailing regulations regarding health and safety protection of workers and comply with all legal, health and welfare provisions, for the entire duration of the exhibition, including times of construction and breakdown of the stand installations and every related activity. At the end of the exhibition, the stand space and the uniform booth display must be returned in their former state. The Exhibitor will be liable for paying for any damage incurred to the property. At the end of the exhibition, the stands must be completely emptied compulsorily no later than 9.00 p.m. of 16 October 2016, as set forth by Article 4 of the General Regulations. Otherwise, the Organizer will impose to the Exhibitor the penalties provided for in Article 28. The Organizer cannot be held liable for the goods and material deposited there and will furthermore reserve the right to remove them at the Exhibitor's expense and responsibility.

17. Optional services

Exhibitors may request optional services (phone lines, cleaning of the booth, audiovisual services, etc.) according to the methods indicated in the on-line Exhibitors' Manual.

18. Catalogue

The Catalogue will be available from the first day of the event and will provide essential information on the participating companies. In the Catalogue will be published Company's general information indicated in the Participation form (Form A). The Organizer declines any responsibility for any printing mistakes, errors, or omissions in relation to information about the exhibitors as they appear in the Catalogue.

19. Promotion

While taking the utmost care and attention, the Organizer cannot be held responsible for any errors or omissions that may occur in the promotional activity (e.g. invitations, exhibitor lists, video and computer support, etc).

20. Suppliers

The Organizer cannot be held responsible for any damage sustained by companies it suggests for purely operational and logistics purposes The Organizer is completely independent of the relationships established directly by participants with individual suppliers.

21. Cleaning

Exhibitors are responsible for cleaning the assigned exhibition space. Cleaning must be done between 9.00 am and 10.00 am and 6.00 pm and 6.30 pm on event days. Exhibitors who do not wish to provide this service on their own may order it as described in the on-line Exhibitors' Manual.

22. General security service – Fire prevention

Crocus International provides for general security service in the halls and is responsible for taking appropriate fire prevention actions. The on-line Exhibitors' Manual will specify the general rules of conduct and safety regulations of Crocus Expo which Exhibitors are required to meet.

23. Insurances

All Risks Insurance policy

Exhibitors are required to open an All Risks Insurance Policy for merchandise, materials, installations and equipment brought and/or used in the event for the corresponding value (no insurance is necessary on the standard installation provided by the Organizer). The policy must be valid throughout the event, including during set up and break down and loading and unloading. The policy must include a clause by which the Exhibitor undertakes to waive the right to file claims against the Organizer and against the owners of the property where the event is held, Crocus International ZAO, and third parties involved in the event.

Third-party liability policy

Every exhibitor must independently arrange for this policy. These policies must be available at the booth and demonstrated by request of the organizers.

More information regarding the mandatory insurance policies are contained in the on-line Exhibitors' Manual.

24. Prohibitions

Exhibitors are expressly forbidden to make sales to individual consumers or to sell products showcased with on-the-spot delivery as well as to exhibit the price of articles exhibited in any form whatsoever.

The following actions are also forbidden:

- displaying advertising banners and/or posters in the halls and on the façade of Building 2 of Crocus Expo

- sandwich board advertisements and indiscriminate distribution of brochures or advertising materials in the halls or within the boundaries of the exhibition complex;
- distribution of objects which constitute advertising;
- staging performances or other forms of entertainment inside the booths;
- taking photographs or motion pictures in the exhibition halls (Exhibitors may take photos of or film only their own stand).

25. Force majeure and limitation of liability

In cases of force majeure or any event beyond the control of the Organizer, the date of the exhibition may be changed, or the exhibition cancelled altogether, in whole or in part. The Organizer shall not be liable in any way whatsoever to Exhibitors, except in case of gross negligence or fault, and shall not be obliged to return fees already paid but may use amounts already remitted as compensation to third parties and to cover organizing costs, in part or in whole, in whatever way incurred.

26. Changes to the General Regulations

The Organizer reserves the right, notwithstanding the terms of these General Regulations, to make new regulations which it believes are better suited for governing this exhibition and its services. The new provisions and regulations will have the same validity as the General Regulations and have equal obligatory nature. Changes will be notified to the Companies.

27. Leg. Decree n. 196/03: protection of privacy

The information provided by the Exhibitor in the participation form and its attachments is subject to the provisions of Italian Leg. Decree n. 196/2003. The Exhibitor, by signing the present General Regulations, agrees that this information will be subject to manual and/or electronic processing for the following purposes:

- administrative management (invoicing);

- statistics (anonymous) and promotional purposes of the exhibition.

Information can be communicated to Italian and foreign subsidiaries of the Organizer, for the purposes related to organization of the Exhibition. All information will be processed for the entire duration of the contractual relations established and also subsequently to fulfil legal requirements. Owner of the Personal Data processing is the Organizer, Foro Buonaparte 65, 20121 Milan, Italy. The Exhibitor is entitled to exercise the rights envisaged by Article 7 of Leg. Decree 196/2003 at any time. The rights under Article 7 may be exercised by sending registered letter, fax or email to the Data Controller whose name will be communicated on request of the person involved.

28. Infringement of Regulations

If the Exhibitor fails to comply with the rules contained in these General Regulations, in the Technical Regulations, the Exhibitors' Manual and any other provisions adopted in the interest of the exhibition as a whole (see Article 26), the Organizer shall have the right to:

- order the Exhibitor to pay an amount as a penalty, save for higher damage, up to a maximum of € 30.000,00;
- arrange for the immediate removal of disallowed products, with the option of removing them on the Exhibitor's behalf should the Exhibitor fail to comply immediately;
- reject applications for subsequent editions of the exhibition and/or other events organized by the Organizer or other linked companies.

29. Competent Court

Any disputes will be exclusively settled by the Court of Milan

The undersigned Company declares to expressly accept the conditions provided under the following articles of the General Regulations: 6 (Participants); 7 (Acceptance of the Regulations); 8 (Application for participation); 9 (Participation fees); 12 (Terms and Conditions of Payment); 13 (Admission / Space assignment); 14 (Rejection of the application); 15 (Withdrawal from participation); 16 (Stand design); 22 (General security service/fire prevention); 23 (Insurances); 24 (Prohibitions); 25 (Force majeure and limitation of liability); 26 (Changes to the General Regulations); 27 (Leg.
